PETITIONING THE COURTTo issue a warrant.

On February 9, 2023, the conditions of supervision were reviewed with Mr. Leland. He signed his judgment acknowledging an understanding of his conditions.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance

Special Condition #6: You must reside in a residential reentry center (RRC) for a period of up to 180 days, or an approved clean and sober residence, at the direction of the supervising officer. Your participation in the programs offered by the RRC is limited to employment, education, treatment, and religious services at the direction of the supervising officer. You must abide by the rules and requirements of the facility/residence.

Supporting Evidence: John Leland allegedly violated the terms of his supervised release by being terminated from the RRC on or about December 7, 2023.

John Leland is a participant of the Sobriety Treatment and Education Program (STEP). During the November 16, 2023, STEP session, he was sanctioned and required to enter into the RRC. On November 27, 2023, placement with the RRC was secured. Mr. Leland released from custody and commenced placement on that date.

On December 7, 2023, RRC staff reported concerns surrounding Mr. Leland deviating from his approved out time from the facility and being in an unauthorized vehicle. As a result, the RRC terminated his placement.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant requiring the offender to appear to answer to the allegation(s) contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
